My husband, Gary, and I were delighted with Laurie and Will Goldstein's musical accompaniment on our wedding day. Laurie had been available for several consultations by phone and e-mail before our wedding and helped us quite a bit with putting together our musical selections. We were impressed with both her flexibility and the variety of music she and Will were able to perform. Laurie played her harp for us as our guests were seated, which really helped set an idyllic mood for the occasion, and she was able to weave her professional and evocative singing into our ceremony beautifully and seamlessly. The music Laurie and Will played following the ceremony was jovial and lighthearted, putting everyone in a celebratory mood. Laurie and Will created the romantic musical ambience that was so important to us on our day.
